

The nursery is open from 9 a.m. until the end of worship and is available for parents to care for their children at any time. Toddlers through grade 1 begin worship with their families, and may then leave for their classes after Sacred Space. Grades 2-5 return to their seats after Sacred Space.

CALL TO WORSHIP(Leader, People)

Rev. Elizabeth Kaznak-Hall

Upon Mount Horeb, Elijah heard the voice of God.

He heard God, not in the rushing wind nor in the powerful earthquake;

Nor in the heat of the fire that consumed the mountainside.

He encountered God in the sound of sheer silence.

Holy God, quiet our minds and hearts.

Holy God, rid us of all distractions,

so we can hear you and know you in our very midst.

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

God, our refuge, you hear our cries for mercy.

You know our exhaustion, our cynicism,

our sense of defeat.

You lift the lowly and offer hope to the hopeless.

But we are quick to lose perspective and exaggerate critique.

We confess the ways we are tempted to give up on the path of righteousness.

We pray for your forgiveness. (Silent prayer)

Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name,

Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

COMMUNION OF GOD'S PEOPLE

An usher will invite you to come forward, row by row, down the center aisle to receive the elements and then return to your seat using the side aisles. Pre-packaged, gluten-free elements are served in the cup trays. If you need to receive the elements in your seat due to mobility issues, indicate so by raising your hand when prompted.

After all have been served, we will partake of the Lord's Supper together.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

God of grace,

at your table we received the bread of life and the cup of salvation.

Missions Possible

One of IPC's long-standing traditions is the donation of school supplies for our neighborhood IPS School #57. Help us continue that tradition for 2026-2027. The shelves in the Mission Alcove are ready to receive all that we can give for the students' use this coming school year. Let's fill those shelves with 24-Count Crayons, Pencils, Dry-Erase Markers, Glue Sticks, Hand Sanitizer, Clorox Wipes, and Kleenex.

This Lord's Supper hymn began with the music of the refrain, an Argentine melody for the Sanctus. Then the refrain text was written to fit that music, followed by stanzas based on themes from John 6. Finally, a melody for the stanzas was composed in the style of the refrain.

Holy, Holy, Holy

The musical score is written for two voices, Treble and Bass, in 3/4 time with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The melody is composed of chords, with each voice part having a corresponding line of lyrics underneath. The lyrics are: 'Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might,'. The score consists of two staves. The Treble staff has a treble clef and the Bass staff has a bass clef. Both staves show a series of chords, with some notes beamed together and others held as whole notes. The lyrics are centered under the Treble staff.

Amen

The musical score is written for a vocal part and a piano accompaniment. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 3/4. The vocal line is on a treble clef staff, and the piano accompaniment is on a bass clef staff. The lyrics are: "A - men, a - men, a - men. A - men, a - men." The music consists of two measures of accompaniment followed by two measures of vocal melody, and then two more measures of accompaniment. The vocal melody is simple, using whole and half notes with some rests. The piano accompaniment provides a harmonic foundation with chords and single notes.

This Lord's Supper text is organized around the fourfold liturgical shape traced by Dom Gregory Dix in The Shape of the Liturgy: take, bless, break, give. It considers how the phrase "Body of Christ," used for sacramental bread, can also be applied to the baptized people of God.
