7:00 PM
IPC Parlor

While scattering her grandfather's ashes in Ireland, Anne Gallagher is mysteriously transported back to 1921 during the Irish War of Independence. Mistaken for a long-lost woman, she is taken in by Dr. Thomas Smith, a physician tied to the Irish nationalist movement. As Anne becomes entangled in the dangerous fight for freedom, she falls in love and must decide where she belongs.

The IPC Justice Advocacy Team will be hosting a Family Zone and Rest and Recovery Tent in the Library lot as a sponsor of Irvington Pride. Irvington Pride will take place on June 27th. Volunteers for set-up, hospitality volunteers, and tear-down will be needed. Watch for your opportunity to sign up!

Sending a child or children to camp this summer? IPC has a camp scholarship program to help cover the costs! Please fill out the form on our website (irvpresby.org) so that payments can be made.

Would you like to sponsor a camper this year?

Download, print, and fill out the form on our website and return it to Lori Chapman.

INDY PRIDE

The IPC Justice Advocacy Team is happy to invite you to join us at the Indy Pride Parade on Saturday, June 13, at 10 a.m. The parade is a celebration of inclusivity in Indianapolis, and we'd love for IPC to have a presence at the event to demonstrate that IPC is a safe, welcoming place for all. There are two ways to participate again this year: walking in the parade or watching and cheering.

Please complete the Pride participation form on our website (irvpresby.org) to indicate how you would like to be involved!

SAVE THE DATE!
120th IPC Anniversary!
IPC's first worship together was on June 10, 1906 at School #57 at Ritter and E. Washington.
Mark your calendars for Sunday, June 14, 2026 at IPC when we will celebrate our congregation's founding! We're not getting older ... WE ARE JUST GETTING STARTED!!!

Initially a poem for a school assembly at which Booker T. Washington spoke on Lincoln's birthday in 1900, this text and tune have gained national recognition and devotion, not only within the African American community, but also among all who seek liberation from oppression.

This text affirms that Christian unity is not achievement but gift, one renewed each time we gather for the Lord's Supper. Each of us enters as an "I" and leaves as part of "we." The unadorned language of this text is well matched to the simple shape note tune that sets it here.

This 20th-century ballad-like retelling of the life of Christ, though written for this Shaker tune, has many similarities with the pre-Reformation carol "Tomorrow shall be my dancing day." Such narrative carols were common both at Christmas and as part of medieval mystery plays.
