PRELUDE

CALL TO WORSHIP (Leader, People) Todd Simmons

Rejoice in the Lord! Praise the Lord with instruments and shouts of joy! God loves justice and righteousness. The earth is full of God's love. Let all of creation revel in awe of God, our creator. God's love endures forever. Amen! Let us worship together.

*HYMN #4 Holy God, We Praise Your Name GROSSER GOTT...

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

Holy God, we confess, that we appreciate decency and order, forgetting that we seek the order that is of our own making. We confess that clear rules and social norms give us comfort, forgetting how many of your beloved children are hurt and excluded by them. We confess that we place our trust in ability, strength, and the works we produce, forgetting our total reliance on your grace. Forgive us, God, and free us to live in courageous faith, that we may abide in your righteousness.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

*RESPONSE #581 Glory Be To The Father GREATOREX

*PASSING THE PEACE

The peace of Christ be with you! And also with you! (As the children come forward, welcome those near you with words of peace.)

SACRED SPACE Fox Alexander

(For Sunday School, Toddlers, Preschool, Kindergarten and Grade 1 may go to the second floor, and children entering grades 2 and up return to their seats.)

ON THE COVER The Celtic Cross In addition to obvious symbols within them (the cross; a circle representing God's eternal nature) Celtic crosses are usually decorated with intricate knotwork, symbolizing interconnectedness, the infinite cycle of life, and spiritual unity. Often, these knots use 1 or 3 strands representing the Trinity: One God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

RESPONDING TO THE WORD

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH Apostles' Creed (unison) I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God, the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

Based on an 18th-century German metrical version of a celebrated 5th-century Latin hymn, Te Deum laudamus, this abbreviated 19th-century English paraphrase is sung by both Protestants and Roman Catholics. It is set here to the tune composed and named for the German version.

The author of this Trinitarian text is unknown, but this hymn has proved popular since the middle of the 18th century, partly because of its effective use of biblical metaphors, but also because of the strength of this tune, which was composed especially for these words.

The year after this text was written for a student sailing to America, it was included in the most influential British hymnal of the 19th century. The tune especially composed for it preserves the ancient Roman name of the island where Paul was shipwrecked, now called Malta.
